DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the amendment of the applicant (Paper No. 6) filed on 10/24/03. Claims 8-25 are presented.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to because in Figures 1, 5 and 7, legend number 13 is suggested to be "Geographic" Information Server. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
Page 29, line 11: "l" is suggested to be "ln".
Page 36, line 26, "serve rthan" is suggested to be "server than".
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
5. Claims 8, 10 and 19 are objected to under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 8 recites the limitation "the bounded region" in 3rd paragraph of the claim. Claims 10 and 19 recite the limitation "within the regions" in line two of both claims. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claims. Therefore, claims 8, 10 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 8-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mikkola et al. (hereinafter Mikkola), U.S. Patent No. 6,529,143, in view of Tso et al. (hereinafter Tso), U.S. Patent No. 6,047,327.

8. Regarding claim 8, Mikkola discloses an information system for delivering position-related information to a portable digital appliance, comprising: a tracking system for tracking position of the appliance and change of position of the appliance relative to time [ie. position of the mobile device and the speed of movement (change of position relative to time) of the mobile device, Mikkola, col. 4, lines 25-59, col. 8, lines 5-24 and col. 10, lines 6-31];

a data repository comprising data entities identified by one or both of position within a bounded region and change of position of the appliance relative to time [ie.

position of vicinity and the movement of the mobile device, Mikkola, col. 7, line 39 – col. 8, line 24 and col. 10, lines 6-31]; and wherein the information system selects information to be provided to the appliance according to the position of the appliance, change of position of the appliance relative to time, and user preference [ie. position, direction of movement, and the interest of the user to the POI (point of interest), Mikkola, col. 7, line 39 – col. 8, line 24 and col. 9, lines 37-63].

Mikkola discloses retrieving POI in accordance to the interest of the user, Mikkola, col. 4, lines 25-59]. Mikkola does not specifically disclose a client profile recording specific preferences for a user of the digital appliance. However, Tso, in the same field of mobile information retrieval endeavor, discloses an Infocast server (similar, in function, to the Internet-server of Mikkola) storing and maintaining a client profile with specific preferences for a user [Tso, col.4, lines 34-53, col. 10, lines 41-61 and col. 15, lines 41-51]. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate a profile database, disclosed by Tso, into the server, disclosed by Mikkola, by adding the profile database to the multiple databases within the server, in order to add more criteria to better dynamically adjust the requested information [Tso, col. 1, lines 7-10 and lines 44-52].

9. Regarding claim 9, Mikkola further discloses the position of the appliance is a geographic position on the surface of the Earth [ie. GPS unit, Mikkola, col. 1, lines 13-17 and col. 9, lines 37-63].

10. Regarding claim 10, Mikkola further discloses the data repository stores data identified by sub-regions, and position of the appliance within a sub-region is used to select information to be provided to the appliance [ie. position of the POI, Mikkola, col. 7, lines 45-61]. Mikkola does not specifically disclose the data repository stores data identified by geographic regions and sub-regions within those regions. However, Tso, in the same field of mobile information retrieval endeavor, discloses breaking up data by region, ie. map of California, (geographic region) and territory the client is currently located, ie regional map of California (sub-region within the geographic region) [Tso, col. 11, line 65 – col. 12, line 25 and col. 19, line 60 – col. 20, line 8]. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate more regional levels, disclosed by Tso, for the data storage, disclosed by Mikkola, in order better focus the information sent to the user [Tso, col. 1, lines 44-52].

11. Regarding claim 11, Mikkola further discloses information retrieved and provided to the appliance is information associated with specific geographic positions, and is selected, at least in part, by the direction of movement of the appliance relative to one of the specific geographic positions [Mikkola, col. 8, lines 5-24].

12. Regarding claims 12 and 13, Mikkola further discloses the information system communicates with the digital appliance on a wireless link, wherein the wireless link is a two-way link, and the appliance sends periodic requests for information to the information system [Mikkola, col. 6, lines 44-58, col. 7, lines 6-16 and col. 9, lines 37-63].

13. Regarding claim 14, Mikkola further discloses the periodic requests are automatically-generated [ie. the terminal, itself, sends requests for updates of POI, Mikkola, col. 12, lines 25-51].

14. Regarding claim 15, Mikkola further discloses the periodic requests are manually generated by a user of the appliance [ie. a user may manually request POI information, Mikkola, col. 9, lines 37-50 and col. 12, lines 43-51].

15. Regarding claim 16, Mikkola further discloses information is pushed to the appliance on a pre-arranged time period [Mikkola, col. 12, lines 1-24].

16. Regarding claims 17-25, they are method claims that generally correspond to the apparatus in claims 8-16, respectively. Therefore, the similar limitations are disclosed under Mikkola in view of Tso for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claims 8-16 [Supra 8-16].

Response to Arguments

17. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 8-25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

18. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

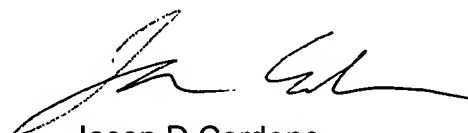

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
